Vision.

In dreams I saw the earth's old sorrow fade;
A cloud of error lifted from man's soul.
The golden idol crushed in dust; the whole
Of coward envy, hate and fear obeyed
A world-wide will and vanished. Unafraid
Man clasped his brother in the sweet control
Of love, and life had found its fitting goal
In justice, fellowship and mutual air.
The human hosts made feast on many a plain,
Their banners marked with "Man Hath Liberty";
Their songs of rapture rose in glorious strain,
Grand paeans of time's noblest victory.
The wonder woke me. With the vision's wane
A voice spoke to my ear, "This yet shall be."
—William Francis Barnard.

Miss Garrison

Honored at "42" Party.

One of the most enjoyable events of the past week was the "42" party given complimentary to Miss Bettie Garrison of Henrietta, Texas, by Mrs. Beulah Northern at the home of her father, D. Gilvin, 809 Fillmore street Friday afternoon. Beautiful Christmas decorations were a fitting background for the large gathering of friends. A number of very interesting games were enjoyed, after which dainty "dream" salad on lettuce leaves, sandwiches, assorted cakes and coffee were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Gilvin, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gilvin, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. ## Phi Alpha Sorority at Six O'Clock Dinner.

Miss Lora Roberts delightfully entertained the members of the Phi Alpha Sorority at her home, 1609 Tyler street, with a 6 o'clock dinner, Thursday evening. Beautiful decorations in keeping with the holiday season added to the pleasure of the occasion, and made the event one of fondest remembrance. The very enjoyable menu was as follows:

Cream of Tomato Soup Crackers
Turkey Cranberry Jelly,
Olives Pickles,
Creamed peas.
Baked Potatoes in Shells
Fruit Salad Wafers
Ambrosia White Cake,
Fruit Cake.
Cocoa.

Later the time was very enjoyably spent with games and music.

Those present were Misses Francis Burgess, Florence Hendrix, Maggie Rae Stanley, Mildred Burgess, Katherine Owen, Gladys Stanley, Carrie Trolinger, Enid Ingerton, Lora Twitchell and Lora Roberts.

Mrs. Roberts was assisted in entertaining the sorority by Misses Tullio and Bates.

Mrs. W. M. Rice

Compliments N. T. C.

One of the most charming entertainments ever enjoyed by the N. T. C. members was that Friday afternoon, when Mrs. W. M. Rice, who is not a member of the club, but has enjoyed many social favors by its members complimented the club with a rare afternoon of pleasure at her home, 1409 Harrison street. The season's greetings were symbolized in a profusion of beautiful and artistic decorations. Outside, the land was wrapped in snowdrifts, while within lights glowed warmly beneath crimson shades, touched with holly. The windows were draped with red crepe paper curtains, adorned with the shimmer of a supreme star and floating over the snow was a sleigh and reindeer being driven by Santa Claus. Holly, mistletoe and red satin ribbons, completed the beautiful and artistic decorations. In the parlor, a large and beautifully adorned Christmas tree held first favor, and later, just before departure, the guests were given boxes of bonbons from its laden branches. The afternoon was enjoyed with various games the most interesting being the "advertisement" contest, for which Mrs. J. D. Bartlett captured the reward for excellency, a beautiful calendar. Mrs. Burgess received the consolation, a huge ball of pop corn. A delicious salad course was then brought in, consisting of cranberry salad on lettuce leaves, and garnished with whipped cream, nut bread sandwiches, pickles, olives, fruit cake, coffee and salted almonds. Later a real Santa Claus entered with the indispensable pack, which was received by the hostess, who called each guest by her maiden name, and as children they went up to receive the little tokens of remembrance contained in the sack.

Those to enjoy this very pleasant occasion were Mesdames J. D. Bartlett, A. C. Covington, La For, Ross, Roscoe, Horsbrough, Will Curtis, Jim Green, W. A. Rice, R. E. Underwood, Bigler, Curtis, J. M. Delzell, W. F. Monning, Riggs, J. B. Beard, D. W. Owen, Scott, Burgess, Richelbers, Holland, R. L. Bigger, Christian, Kerr, Killough, J. B. Krebb, R. L. Ponder, T. C. Pleitsch, Thompson, Russell, Smith, J. F. Utter and Miss Whitman.

Christmas Party at ### Meador Home.

The younger set has enjoyed a continuous round of gayeties the past week, not one day being without some pretty social function to mark its close. Among the hostesses of the week were Misses Jenebeth Willbourn and Willie Kate Meador, who entertained Friday evening at the lovely home of Miss Meador on Jackson street. The rooms were made bright and cheerful by decorations of holly, mistletoe and red bells, in honor of the pretty and animated gathering of girls and boys. Forty-two and progressive conversation furnished much pleasure and later all gathered around the grate to toast marshmallows over the glowing coals. Later a delicious salad course was served to the following: Misses Frances Burgess, Louise Green, Louise Sollenberger, Lena Becham Reeder, Florence Hendricks, Juanita Kirk, May Nobles, Maggie Rae Stanley, Leota Bryant of Memphis, Tex., Mildred Burgess, Katherine Owen, Gladys Stanley, Carrie Trolinger, Enid Ingerton, Lora Twitchell, Lora Roberts and Masters Arthur Ware, John Cradlington, Joe Lee Perry, C. B. Reeder, Wales Madden, Henry Brown, Earl Fuqua, Holland, J. W. Packett, Will Erwin, Jewell Patton, Arthur Green, Charlie Blanchard and Bradley Kimbrough.

Mrs. Blanchard Entertains

Sunday School Class.

Mrs. C. C. F. Blanchard entertained her Sunday school class of the Central Presbyterian church in her usual charming manner, Thursday afternoon at her home, 1209 Pierce street, from 2 to 6 o'clock. The afternoon was delightfully spent with games, Fort-two proving the most popular. To this pleasure was added steaming hot chocolate, cakes and bonbons.

Those to enjoy Mrs. Blanchard's hospitality were Misses Gladys and Maggie Rae Stanley, Camille Roquemore, Agnes Wilson, Alma Clayton, Martha Mullen, Juanita Kirk, Mable Newman, Lucy Richards, Lorraine Babb, Irene Fitch, Alma Freeman, Mary Meador and Lora Duren.

U. D. C. Sends

Christmas Box.

At the meeting of the U. D. C. organization Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. Beard, 1204 Harrison street, the box to be sent to the Woman's Confederate home at Austin, was completed, containing a variety of useful and dainty articles for the inmates of the home. The box was shipped yesterday afternoon and doubtless there will be much rejoicing upon its arrival at the home. The next regular meeting of the U. D. C. will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Beard, when arrangements will be made for the joint social entertainment of the Confederates, the sons and the daughters, to be given January 19.

Mrs. Lowrey Entertains

Complimentary to Sons.

Mrs. B. G. Lowrey very charmingly entertained a host of young people out at the college Thursday evening, complimentary to her two sons, Masters Stovall and Rosewell Lowrey. The Misses De Courcy assisted Mrs. Lowrey in entertaining, and the Misses Huddleston chaperoned the boys and girls out to the college.

Beautiful Christmas decorations abounded everywhere, lending a truly Christmas festival air to the college halls. Red and green predominated, bells being strung mid farlands of green, while potted plants of narcissus filled the rooms with their sweet fragrance.

Contests, games and music furnished delightful pastime for the guests who later enjoyed punch and wafers. Those present were Misses May Patterson, Lucile Copeland, Iris Kirk, Carrie Mae Sockwell, Gertrude Starkweather, Minnie Madden, Della Patterson, Gertrude Lowndes, Lucile Lowndes, Violet Kendrick, Ruth Thompson, Addie Phillips, Edith Earl Sellers, Mary Alice Lowrey, Alma Booth and Masters Stovall and Rosewell Lowrey, Will Boyce, Chester Rice, Felix Phillips, Leon Lowrey, Wilfred Dinan, Joe Ross, J. W. Pickett, Jr., J. G. Armstrong and Curtis Morris.

Mrs. Pearl Coble

Hostess at Surprise Party.

A jolly crowd of friends surprised Mrs. Pearl Coble at her home Friday evening at her home, 1004 Lincoln street, the occasion being Mrs. Coble's birthday. The evening was delightfully spent with an informal candy pulling, the dainty being peerlessly made by Messrs. Hill and Young. Fortune telling was an especial feature of the evening's pleasure, and a number of "leap year" games furnished no end of amusement. About twenty-five guests made merry, the hours slipping swiftly away, until the time to bid adieu arrived.

Kimbrough-Erwin

Recital.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the Christmas season, was the musicale given at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Kimbrough, 1110 Van Buren street, by their son, Bradley, and Will Erwin, two musicians recognized in Amarillo for their exceptional ability. Beautiful Christmas decorations in red and green expressed the compliment of the season. Following is the program, which met with heartiest appreciation by the thirty guests present:

PART I.

Piano: "Moonlight Sonata" (Beethoven)—Miss Rachel Kendall.
Violin: "Scene de Ballet" (De Beriot)—Miss Lois Reeves.
Piano: (a) "Drifting" (Frime); (b) "Am Meer" (Liszt)—Miss Ruth Howard.

Voice: "Love in Springtime" (Arditi)—Miss Louise Hopkins.

At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served, consisting of fruit salad, nut bread, sandwiches and coffee.

Minister and Family

Return From Farwell.

Rev. Milton R. Worsham, rector of Saint Andrew's Episcopal church, accompanied by Mrs. Worsham and the little daughter, Miss Ethel Worsham, returned Friday evening from a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Linthicum of Farwell.

During the visit Rev. Worsham and a party of friends under the leadership of Mr. Linthicum enjoyed an outing and hunt for prairie chicken and quail. The visit was thoroughly enjoyed by both Rev. and Mrs. Worsham.

Enjoyable Dinner at

Curtis Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Curtis entertained with a most enjoyable dinner Thursday evening at their home, 1403 Harrison street. The table was beautiful and fragrant in its decorations of carnations and narcissus.

The menu which was an elaborate one, was most heartily enjoyed by all present. Covers were laid for the following: Mrs. D. M. Hewins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, Mrs. Katherine Hutson, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Will Curtis and Miss Carrie Curtis.

School to Reopen.

Teachers who went to various points to spend the holidays with relatives and friends, are returning home to resume their duties, when the schools will reopen their season of work Tuesday, January 2.

Wedding of Interest

To Amarillo.

The following, taken from a copy of the Burlington Haweye dated December 21, will be of special interest to friends of the bride in Amarillo. Mrs. Little, as Miss Fern Branigar, visited in Amarillo for several summers, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. M. Delzell, and while here became a leading social favorite. Many friends here are voicing their very best wishes to the happy bride and groom.

BRANIGAR-LITTLE.

The First Presbyterian church was brilliant with lights and the glow of scarlet poinsettias, intermingled with Christmas greens in honor of the nuptials of Miss Fern Branigar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Branigar, and Mr. John Little.

The chancel and organ loft were screened with southern smilax and poinsettias, huge sprays making an ideal setting for a Christmas wedding.

During the waiting half-hour Miss Wundt played the "Spring Song," by Macfarlane, and with Prof. Henri Fischer heralded the approach of the bridal party.

The strains of "Lohengrin" sang out as the groom and his brother, Mr. Robert Little, came from the vestry to await the bride who was preceded by her niece, dainty little Miss Katherine Branigar, in a soft lingerie frock with scarlet ribbons and carry a silver basket filled with roseleaves. The little maid was followed by the ushers, Messrs. Waldo Branigar and Lyman Guests, Beverly Hobbs of Keokuk and Earl Mitchell; then came the maids, Misses Marie Blaul, Harriet Brooks, Adeline Meir and Miss Edna Little, sister of the groom. The maids were gown alike in point d'esprit net over white satin with broad scarlet satin sashes and carrying long handled empire baskets of silver filled with poinsettias and asparagus ferns. Following the maids came the maid of honor, Miss Ethel Branigar, lovely in scarlet chiffon tunic over white satin, with a brilliant bodice garniture of gold lace. She carried white sweet peas in her basket. All the maids wore little caps of silver and pearl net with tiny red rose buds.

Then came the bride, beautiful in soft white satin, and princess lace, and over it fell the filmy folds of the bridal veil which was held in place with a pearl bandeau. Her only jewel was a pendant of diamonds, pearls and sapphires, the gift of the groom. A shower bouquet of hyacinths, sweet peas and stevia fell over her arm as she came in with her father.

The bridal party standing before the screen of scarlet and green, under a scarlet bell suspended over their heads by ropes of green made a striking picture. During the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Dr. Cardie, Miss Wundt and Prof. Fischer played softly "Salut d'Amour," by Elgar, "Eros" (God of Love), by Martin and these blended into "Adoration" by Borowski, swaying joyously into Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bride and groom, preceded by the winsome little flower girl scattering her rose leaves, and followed by the maids and men turned to leave the church.

A few intimate friends joined the bridal party at the house following the ceremony. The decorations there were all in gold and white; white hyacinths, stevia and asparagus ferns for the tables with the Christmas colors throughout the reception rooms.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur M. Branigar of North Fourth street, and is one of the loveliest, most charming society girls and immensely popular and the groom during his short residence in Burlington, proved his worth and has won hosts of friends here and in Sioux City where they will make their home.

The bride's "going away" gown was a blue tailored cloth.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Little, parents of the bridegroom; Miss Edna Little and Mr. Robert Little, Jr., sister and brother, of Unionville, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Branigar and daughter Katherine of Okaloosa; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Branigar, Miss Grace Branigar Mr. Waldo Branigar of Chicago and Mr. Beverly Hobbs of Keokuk.

Miss Adeline Moir's dinner and box party for the Branigar-Little bridal party was one of the prettiest and most interesting of the pre-nuptial events. The table was brilliant with red poinsettias, cunning little bays of rice for the maids and little red peppers for the men were the place favors. During the dinner Miss Branigar presented her maids with little blue and pink and gold fans in satin bags, and Mr. Little's gifts to his men were stickpins with sapphire settings. Later they occupied prose-cum boxes as "Princess Bonnie."

Spencer-Logan.

News reaches Amarillo of the marriage of Miss Dixie Logan, of Seymour, Tex., to Dr. Clyde G. Spencer, B. A. L., with headquarters at Canadian, Texas. The news comes as a pleasant surprise to friends of Dr. Spencer in Amarillo, he having been located here a year ago, coming here from Topeka, Kan. Mrs. Spencer as Miss Logan was one of the most popular girls of Seymour, and counts her friends by the score. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, after a short honeymoon trip, will reside at Canadian.

Following is a brief notice of the wedding of the popular managing editor of the Randall County News.

Clyde Warwick weds a Canyon, Texas, young lady this Thursday evening and the "Old Reliable" extends congratulations and best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life. The bride elect was a former Jefferson, Iowa, girl. Clyde is managing editor of the only paper in Randall county, Texas, and is making a success in the newspaper business.—Republican, Montezuma, Iowa.

The regular meeting of the Auxiliary of the Episcopal church will be postponed until January 8.

Some very enjoyable numbers will be rendered this evening at the Central Presbyterian church by the Amarillo Male Quartette.

The P. E. O. Society is planning a most enjoyable evening of fun in the near future, when they will present to the Amarillo audience, Mr. Hansell, "the funny man," at the W. C. W. hall.

Miss Bettie Garrison of Henrietta, Texas, who has been on a very enjoyable visit with relatives in Amarillo, left yesterday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Kennedy left Friday for a visit to his old home at Quincy, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Trigg are guests of Mrs. Trigg's parents at McKinney.

Mrs. Harty of St. Louis, who was called to Amarillo to attend the funeral of her brother, Mr. C. A. Callahan, returned yesterday to her home. Mr. John Callahan of St. Louis, and brother of the deceased, will remain in Amarillo indefinitely.

Miss Jenebeth Willbourn has as her guest Miss Leota Bryant of Memphis, Texas.

Mrs. H. W. Schreiber and children are expected home from their holiday visit to relatives at Honey Grove on Monday or Tuesday.

Miss Minnie Isle Callaway leaves this afternoon for Wichita Falls, at which place she meets with her college friend, Miss Susanne Carter Yates. The young lady will return to her home in this city after a visit of three or four days with her friend. PARENTS ARE RECEIVING MESSAGES OF SYMPATHY.

When Amarillo people became acquainted with the fact that Miss Edith DeWitt is dead in Phoenix, Arizona, numerous messages of condolence were forwarded the parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. DeWitt, at that point. Mrs. DeWitt and sons have been at the bedside of the daughter for several weeks, but the father went only recently.

Miss DeWitt was graduated from the Amarillo public schools but a few seasons ago, and was at that time one of the favorites in the younger social set. Contracting a deep cold, the young lady later developed a tubercular trouble that finally claimed her life. The news of this death comes with much sadness to the former classmates of this fair young girl, and the many friends in every section of the city, who knew and loved her.
